FAR FROM THE MADDING CROWD

The sun-drenched island of Samui in the Gulf of Thailand is 70 minutes by air from Bangkok. At the secluded northern end of Chaweng, its most beautiful beach, sits the Amari Palm Reef Resort; a cluster of Thai-style buildings and bungalows hidden from the world by gently swaying palm trees. Calm, clear waters and a soft, sand beach are just two of the hotel's idyllic attractions.

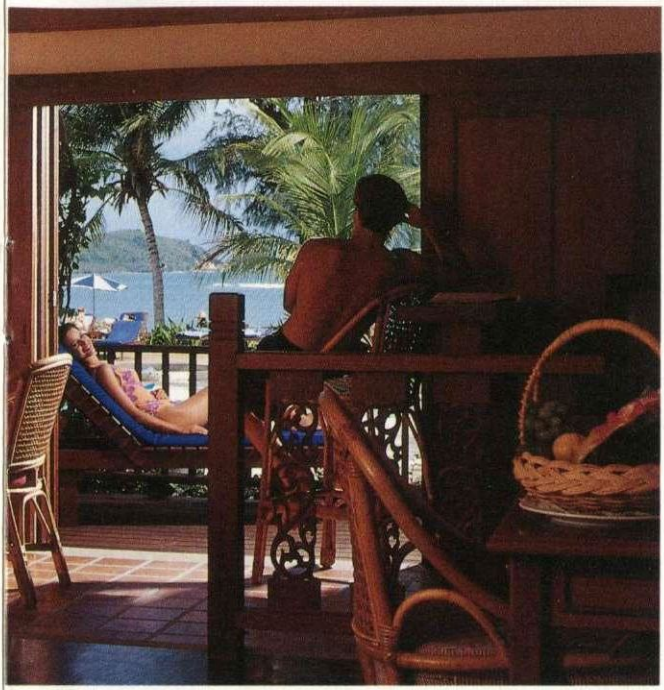

Traditional Thai welcome.

LUXURY AMONG THE PALM TREES.

From balconied suites with views of the distant islands to family duplexes and bungalows set in quiet tropical gardens, the Amari Palm Reef Resort has accommodation to suit every taste.

All 84 rooms have a private veranda or terrace and offer comfortable surroundings

The Kinaree — Thai food at its best

DINING: ALFRESCO OR THAI-STYLE

Refreshing sea breezes and captivating views make the Meranté Terrace an irresistible place to linger over breakfast or lunch. In the late arternoon, tropical cocktails are the order of the day at the swim-up pool bar, or in the shade of the Meranté Bar. And in the evenings the romantic atmosphere of the Kinaree Thai Restaurant adds a whole new dimension to dining on fresh seafood, local specialities, and mouth – watering desserts.

LIVE LIFE AT YOUR OWN PACE

the Amari Palm Reef Resort — tennis, squash, nearby watersports — but Samui is such an easy going tropical island, the temptation is to just laze on the beach, or beside the pool, and be pampered by our ever-attentive staff.

Tranquil waters

Marine national park, just a boatride away.

EXPLORING ON LAND AND SEA

Jeeps and motorcycles can easily be hired and the coast road offers a scenic ride. Inland, waterfalls, butterfly farms and a monkey theatre offer pleasing distractions.

Offshore, trips to 'Robinson Crusoe' islands hold the promise of excellent snorkeling among some of the most colourful coral in Asia.
